

SCOPIST TRAINING PROGRAM

" WHERE EVERY STUDENT IS THE TEACHER'S PET."

WHAT IS A SCOPIST?

A scopist assists a court reporter prepare documents (transcripts) of legal proceedings, usually depositions taken in preparation for a trial.

The scopist takes the court reporter's roughly translated file and edits and proofs it using the reporter's steno notes and audio file, returning the finished product to the reporter for submission to the court.

Scopists can work from home (or anywhere of their choosing) on their own computer using software that is compatible with the CAT (computer-aided transcription) software the reporter uses. Scopists are paid by the reporter by the number of pages edited.

"I cannot express enough how much I LOVE this school." Charnel W., Scopist

HOW LONG IS THE PROGRAM?

The Scopist Training Program is designed as a self-paced online curriculum consisting of eight courses completed over six months.

WHAT ARE THE COURSES?

The program consists of eight courses offered in two 12-week quarters:

First Quarter:

- Theory I—Learning to read steno notes
- English I—Basic grammar
- Medical Terminology—Word building/terms
- Practical Applications—Application of concepts

Second Quarter:

- Theory II—Continuation of Theory I
- English II—Applied grammar skills and editing
- Legal Terminology—Case law and terms
- Technology—Computer applications

WHAT EQUIPMENT IS NEEDED?

A home or laptop computer is necessary for editing exercises. BRSCR will remotely load student software. E-mail and Internet access are also required.

"The BRSCR online program has been one of the best things I have ever done for myself." Monice O., Scopist

Baton Rouge, LA

Phone: 225-218-4919

E-mail: office@brscr.com

Web: brscr.com

WHEN DO CLASSES START?

All modules are available online. You may start at any time.

"I recommend this course to everyone." Crystal T., Scopist

WHAT ABOUT BOOKS?

Some modules have a required textbook. Books are not included in the program cost but can often be purchased used for minimal cost ~ $200.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

The program fee is $2400, or $300 per module, plus a $150 registration fee. Students also pay a $100 software fee.

Tuition is billed per course activated and may be paid by e-check, credit or debit card.

SIGN ME UP!

Register online at BRSCR.com, Enroll Now. Or contact Admissions for more information at (225) 218-4919, or e-mail office@brscr.com.